

Tibor is project coordinator of BLOCKWALKS – European conference, conference dedicated to utilization of blockchain technology within the public sector. Besides that, Tibor works in the BDO Slovak Republic as a consultant. He is a successful graduate of the American College, where he studied Business Administration and currently he is a student of Digital Currency Master Program at the University of Nicosia which is the first university in the World in Bitcoin and Blockchain Education.

Expertise Summary

Tibor is experienced in the organization of the first conference of its kind, that is connecting top level governmental officials and advanced technology speakers from around the world, focused on the future of public sector using blockchain technology. Besides the coordination role in BLOCKWALKS conference, Tibor is focused on the blockchain advisory and he is part of advisory board for blockchain based social responsibility network for supply chain and prove of origin. He is also a member of Blockchain Slovakia which is a civic association that brings together researchers, developers, entrepreneurs, regulators, investors and the public to support blockchain technology in Slovakia. He represents BDO in the regional community and at the various international conferences related to blockchain technology. During his professional career at BDO, he has participated in various projects, including financial auditing, pre-investment financial reviews, as well as business consulting in the field of internal processes.