

Filip Fele

Filip Fele has been employed at SŽ (Slovenian Railways) since 1989. During these years, he has been actively involved in various technical and organizational fields of work within the company. Some of the most important milestones in his professional career:

- Head of service for the quality of SŽ rolling stock maintenance
- The main engineer in the field of maintenance
- Coordinator – project manager

He is also deputy mayor of the municipality of Litija, responsible for substituting the mayor in the fields of economic public infrastructure, economy and sports, as well as for coordinating and monitoring various projects.