

IZTOK SELJAK

Dr. Iztok Seljak, Director of Holding Hidria, lead Hidria as a President of Management Board since 2008. He has been Vice President of Hidria for Industrial Sales & Marketing since 2002, while in 2004, he also took over the responsibility for Hidria Automotive, one of the core two divisions within Hidria Corporation and have developed it as one of the globally leading companies in its segments. Since 1996 he managed Hidria Rotomatika, Hidria's core daughter company and before that since 1989 started in Hidria Rotomatika in logistics and managed its purchasing and sales & marketing.

He has after graduating on Faculty of Economics in Ljubljana completed his MBA (1995), Master of Science (2007) and Phd studies (2015) at IEDC Management School at Bled, addressing the challenges of future mobility solutions in EU in zero level emission and business model innovation.

He has been in 2002 by the Association of Slovene Managers "Manager" presented an award of the Young Manager of the Year in Slovenia. In 2012, he was awarded as "Best manager of Middle and Southeast Europe" by the international Sarajevo jourey. With Hidria, he won the title of the "Most innovative company in Europe 2012/2013" by EBA, European Business Awards. In 2016, he won with Hidria the CLEPA (Association of European automotive suppliers) Eco Innovation of the year with Oplymus PSG.

A proud Rotarian, he among other innitiated Rally Rotary in 2015 and developed it in Edison partnership for sustainable e-mobility.

He is a Member of the Board of Slovenian Association Manager and Vice President of Samit 100, Managers' Association of Southeastern Europe. As a Rotarian and Guverner Elect of Rotary District 1912 (Slovenia and North Macedonia) in 2020/2021 he is dedicated to charity and helping people in need to change the world for better.