

Francesco Ferrero

Head of European Investment Bank (EIB) office in Ljubljana, until September 2022.

Francesco Ferrero has been working for the EIB in Luxembourg since 2013, where he has covered roles in the Risk Management area as well as in the Lending team in the Adriatic Sea Department of the Bank. Previous to EIB, he also held positions in the private sector with financial institutions based in Frankfurt and in Dublin, as a portfolio manager and earlier in credit risk management (specialising in the areas of infrastructure, utilities and public sector finance).

