

Dr. Michael Gebert

Entrepreneur & President of the EBA
European Blockchain Association

Dr. Michael Gebert is a visionary entrepreneur who is passionate about innovation, particularly in the field of artificial intelligence (AI). With a solid background in business administration and a PhD in swarm intelligence, Dr. Gebert understands the complexities of the emergent and collaborative aspects of AI, and how they can be applied to the business world. He offers expertise in the areas of strategic development & classification and is a sought-after expert for executives and entrepreneurs seeking to understand and leverage the value of AI and other digital technologies. With a strong understanding of AI, blockchain, and other digital technologies, Dr. Gebert helps companies meet the challenges of digital transformation while maximizing the value of these technologies to their business. His visionary leadership and commitment to innovation make him an influential player in digital transformation.