

Dr. Lidija Glovenik is president of Slovenian Water Managers Association, working at TC Vode - Thematic center for Water Research, a partner of European Environment Agency - European Topic Center for Biodiversity and Ecosystems (EEA - ETC BE) and European Topic Center for Sustainable Transitions (EEA - ETC ST).

She graduated at University of Ljubljana at Faculty of Civil Engineering and Geodesy, and worked for more than 25 years at the Institute of Republic of Slovenia for Waters. She was lead expert supporting Slovenian Ministry for Environment and Physical Planning in development of national water management plans. She is an expert in hydrology, river basin management and flood risk assessment studies.